The RAILROAD MUSEUM OF LONG ISLAND
WHITE CASTLE TOFC Reefer & Tractor

The Railroad Museum of Long Island (RMLI) is pleased to announce the thirteenth in our series of Lionel O gauge commemorative cars. Production of this car will be extremely limited to only those who purchase this car in advance. Funds raised from the sale of this car will go toward the operation of the Museum, including education/restoration programs, exhibits, collections and the Historic Lionel Layout.

In 1921, Wichita, Kansas based White Castle, revolutionized the restaurant trade by opening the first fast-food hamburger chain store.

The first fast-food restaurant to be placed outside a major city in the United States was the 1933, Lynbrook, Long Island White Castle. Located just across Broadway from the Lynbrook Long Island Railroad station, this White Castle restaurant continues to refresh hungry commuters at the same location after eighty years!

The RMLI celebrates the history of the first ever fast-food hamburger restaurant on Long Island, White Castle, with this collectible trailer on flatcar built by Lionel.
